#LearningforLifeAnchoredInChrist

Our values focus this half term is Humility

Welcome to the Anchor News where this week you get to hear from me, Miss Greene. You may have heard the children call me different names based on my hair colour, which changes often, my favourites have been Miss Cyan and Miss Unicorn.

This year I have enjoyed taking time to read some of the books that teachers and children have been reading in school. You can see a few of my favourites on the right. I really enjoyed The Wild Robot series and finished the 2nd book in a day! I am very excited to hear that there is a 3rd book coming out Summer 2023. This summer I am hoping to read 1783 Freedom after a recommendation from children in Year 6.

This week the children have been taking part in Curriculum Week. I hope the children have shared with you all the different music, DT, computing and languages that they have been learning.

Hope you all have a lovely weekend 😊

UNICEF Rights of the Child

Article 11 (abduction and non-return of children)

Governments must do everything they can to stop children being taken out of their own country illegally by their parents or other relatives, or being prevented from returning home

Article 32 (child labour)

Governments must protect children from economic exploitation and work that is dangerous or might harm their health, development or education. Governments must set a minimum age for children to work and ensure that work conditions are safe and appropriate.
